

Cooperation between paprico ag and Steiger Engineering AG

paprico ag and Steiger Engineering AG enter a future-oriented partnership. Alex Gall, longtime owner of Steiger Engineering AG, will gradually retire from the business. In terms of an early succession planning paprico ag and Alex Gall will jointly work on mandates of Steiger Engineering AG. Thus the capacities and the network of paprico ag also opens up for the clients of Steiger Engineering AG.

Alex Gall of Steiger Engineering: „I am pleased to be able to offer my clients an even more comprehensive range of services with this cooperation and to know that they will be in professional hands in the future as well.“

Marco Fantelli of paprico: „We are delighted to be able to support the longstanding successful work of Steiger Engineering AG and to extend our business activities in the SME-market of Switzerland, Germany and Austria.“ Peter Letter adds: „Our range of services will be further strengthened with this cooperation. In the SME-market we see a vast backlog in the solution-oriented implementation of company-successions.“

Contacts:

Alex Gall, +41 44 383 46 85, alex.gall@seag.ch

Marco Fantelli, +41 43 344 38 14, marco.fantelli@paprico.ch

Steiger Engineering AG is an international consulting boutique for change management relating to company ownership structures. Mainly smaller and medium-sized companies in the German speaking world use its professional services and expertise.

www.seag.ch

paprico ag – partners for private capital & companies is a specialist for direct investments in companies in the private equity and venture capital markets in Switzerland and the German-speaking region. The range of services is aimed at entrepreneurs and family offices as well as private and institutional investors. paprico provides support in the management and development of participations, in buy- and sell-transactions, in financings as well as in company-successions.

www.paprico.ch